

Role of SEBI in protecting interests of retail investors

3792. SHRI AMAR SINGH: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

what is the role of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) in ensuring that the interests of numerous retail investors are protected;

how does SEBI ensure that there is a level playing field for the retail investors in the stock market;

whether SEBI had received complaints of insider trading during the last six months and if so, the details thereof and the action taken thereon; and how many companies have been prosecuted for this activity in the recent past?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI PAWAN KUMAR BANSAL): (a) and (b) Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) is mandated under SEBI Act 1992 to protect the interest of investors, which inter-alia includes the protection of interests of retail investors. SEBI takes steps to keep SEBI (DIP) the guidelines in the tune with market developments so that the interests of investors are adequately protected.

(c) and (d) During the period November 1, 2007 to April 26, 2008, SEBI has received complaints alleging insider trading pertaining to the shares of five companies.

The SEBI Act, 1992 and the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 1992 have provisions aimed at reducing the incidence of insider trading and to empower SEBI to take appropriate enforcement action against the entities engaged in insider trading. So far SEBI has filed 13 prosecution cases against US entities/persons for violation of SEBI ((Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations 1992.
