SHRI MURLI DEORA: Sir, the Prime Minister's Office has not issued any order or any instructions to help the Company. Certain references were received from Prime Minister's Office in a routine manner without any recommendation on the basis of a representation made by Shri Selvakumar Baalu, Director of the Company. ...(Interruptions)...

Sir, the Companies filed writ petitions in the Madras High Court against the cancellation of agreed allocation of gas. ...(Interruptions)... A learned Single Judge, by order, dated 10th October, 2007, passed the following orders:—

"The first respondent herein is directed to afford reasonable opportunity to the petitioner herein and thereafter made re-allotment in favour of the petitioner on the basis of the priority. This exercise can be done within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order". ...(Interruptions)...

Since the order of the single Judge was not implemented,, the company filed a Contempt Petition. In the meanwhile, Tamil Nadu Power Producers Association and Narimanam Zone Natural Gas Consumers Association filed Writ Appeals, W.A. No. 241 and 244 of 2008, * against the orders of the Learned Single Judge, dated the 10th October 2007, in Writ Petitions Nos. 29602 and 32441 of 2005, before the Division Bench of the Madras High Court. Union of India, GAIL and the Companies were parties. The Division Bench of the hon. High Court of Madras passed an order in the Writ Appeal, on 19.02.2008, wherein the earlier order passed by the Single Judge on 10.10.2007 was set aside and the Government was directed to decide upon the applications on the firms on merit. ...(Interruptions)...

In the meanwhile, one independent Power Producers Association and others have filed a Writ Petition, Civil No. 9595 of 2007, in the High Court of Delhi, wherein the same subject matter of allocation of gas is involved and a stay order was issued by the aforesaid High Court. ...(Interruptions)...
