(b) There are 505796 Anganwadi Workers and same number of helpers as on date. While Anganwadi Workers are paid honorarium ranging from Rs. 438/- to Rs. 563/- p.m., helpers are paid Rs. 260/- p.m. as honorarium. Anganwadi Workers have also been provided with the benefits of paid maternity leave and 20 days of paid absence in a year.

(c) and (d) The Government appreciates the voluntary efforts put in by Anganwadi Workers and Helpers in implementation of the ICDS Scheme. Accordingly, the Government has been increasing the amount of honorarium being paid to Anganwadi Workers and Helpers from time to time. The last increase was done in May, 1997. Besides the norms for honorarium for these workers fixed by Government of India, some State Governments and UT Administrations are paying them additional amount from their own sources. We have taken up this matter with the remaining State Governments to pay them additional amount. Besides this, these workers are required to attend training programmes aimed at their empowerment. They are given TA/DA etc. for attending the training programmes which was revised in 1999.
