

(d) whether Government would consider to regularise all the contract labourers working in NALCO continuously for more than one year?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF MINES AND MINERALS (DR. (SHRIMATI) RITA VERMA): (a) to (d) The total number of contract labourers working under different contractors in NALCO in its units / offices, including its expansion project as on 1.4.2000 is approximately 12360. Payments to the contract labourers are made by individual contractors as per their independent terms and conditions of engagement. However, NALCO ensures the payment of minimum wages as notified by the appropriate authorities from time to time. NALCO also ensures that safety equipments and statutory benefits under Contract Labour (R & A) Act, 1970 are provided to contract Labourers by respective contractors. There is no scheme to regularise the contract labourers working in NALCO continuously for more than one year. Most of the contract labourers are engaged on expansion / construction projects and periodical maintenance job contracts.
