826. SHRI NILOTPAL BASU:

SHRI SANATAN BISI:

Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that a Committee was set up for study and subsequent implementation of the recommendations of the Sarkaria Commission on Centre-State relations;

(b) if so, the salient features of the report and the response of Government thereto; and

(c) the time-frame for implementation of this report?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI I.D. SWAMI): (a) to (c) Following the first meeting of the Inter-State Council held on 10.10.1990, a Sub-Committee of the Council was constituted on 27.12.1990 to examine the recommendations of the Sarkaria Commission and also to consider wider aspects of Centre-State Relations. The Sub-Committee accepted, with or without modifications, 155 recommendations. It did not accept 24 recommendations. There was no consensus in the Sub-Committee in respect of 11 recommendations. One recommendation was partially considered. However, the views of the Sub-Committee could not be placed before the Council.

The Inter-State Council, in its second meeting held on 15.10.1996, recommended that there should be a Standing Committee of the Council for continuous consultations and processing of matters for the consideration of the Council. The Standing Committee was accordingly constituted on 5.12.1996. The Standing Committee was required, inter alia, to consider the current views of the State Government on 179 recommendations on which there was a consensus in the Sub-Committee and also the items on which there was no consensus.

The Standing Committee has met six times and considered a number of recommendations made by the Sarkaria Commission. The
