Allotment of Land to Dr. Ambedkar National Library

*272. SHRI BANGARU LAXMAN:
SHRI BALWANT SINGH
RAMOOWALIA:

Will the Minister of SOCIAL JUSTICE AND EMPLOYMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether the physical possession of the land measuring about four acres allotted to her ministry in April 1994 for the project of Dr. Ambedkar national Public Library at New Delhi has not yet been handed over to them;

(b) if so, what are the reasons therefor;

(c) what efforts are being made by her Ministry for obtaining physical possession of the above referred land allotted for this project; and

(d) what steps have been taken for procurement of adequate funds for commencement of this project?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF SOCIAL JUSTICE AND EMPLOYMENT (SHRIMATI MANEKA GANDHI): (a) and (b) No, Sir. Physical possession of land measuring about 4 acres allotted to the Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment has not yet been made over as the said land consisting of five bungalows (excluding one bungalow which has been handed over) have been allotted to the members of Parliament.

(c) The matter is being pursued with the concerned authorities of Ministry of Urban Affairs and Employment and Chairman of the House Committee Lok Sabha and Rajya Sabha.

(d) An amount of Rs. 5.50 crore has been released as Grant for Dr. Ambedkar National Public Library in the year 1991-92. The amount is kept in Fixed Deposit.

Employment in Organised and Unorganised Sector

*273. SHRI LAJPAT RAI:
SHRI CHIMANBHAI
HARIBHAI SHUKLA:

Will the Minister of LABOUR be pleased to state:

(a) whether employment in the organised sector has been sharply declining in the country in the recent years;

(b) The contribution of the Central Government enterprises in this regard;

(c) whether any steps are being taken/contemplated to increase the rate of growth in employment in both organised and unorganised sectors; and

(d) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF LABOUR (DR. SATYA NARAYAN JATIYA): (a) to (d) As per the information collected through the Employment Market Information programme of the Directorate General of Employment & Training, there is no decline in the Organised sector employment. Employment in the Central Government, however, has shown a marginal decline.

The Ninth Plan envisages priority to agriculture and rural development with a view to generating adequate productive employment and eradication of poverty. Greater productive employment will be generated in the growth process itself by concentrating on sectors, sub-sectors and technologies which are labour intensive, in regions characterised by higher rates of unemployment and underemployment.

(ग) इसके कार्यान्वयन के लिए क्या समय-सीमा निर्धारित की गई हैं;

शहरी कार्य और रोजगार मंत्री (श्री राम जेठमलानी) : (क) जी, नहीं।

(ख) और (ग) प्रश्न नहीं उठते।

Repeal of the Urban Land (Celing and Regulation) act 1976

*275. SHRI AMAR SINGH: Will the Minister of URBAN AFFAIRS AND EMPLOYMENT be pleased to state:

(a) what is the number of dwelling units likely to be generated for the benefit of lower and middle income group persons in the Capital as a result of the repeal of the Urban Land (Celing and Regulation) Act, 1976;

(b) whether it is a fact that the repeal of the said Act would extend benefit to the upper strata of the society; and

(c) if so, the remedial steps Government propose to take to ensure that the economically weaker sections of the society are benefitted?

THE MINISTER OF URBAN AFFAIRS AND EMPLOYMENT (SHRI RAM JETHMALANI): (a) It is not possible to estimate the number of dwelling units likely to be made available for the benefit of lower and middle income group persons in the Capital as a result of the repeal of the Urban Land (Ceiling & Regulation) Act, 1976. However, it is expected that housing activity will receive a boost because of increased availability of land and easier assembly of land.

(b) and (c) Repeal of the Act is expected to benefit all sections of society. Guidelines issued to the State Governments/Union Territories to protect the interests of the EWS and LIG categories after repeal of the Urban Land (Ceiling and Regulation) Act, 1976 and enclosed as Statement below.

Statement

Guidelines for Achieving Social Objective after Repeat of Urban Land (Ceiling & Regulation) Act, 1976

Urban Land (Ceiling & Regulation) Act, 1976 has been repealed by promulgation of an Ordinance. The Bill for the repeal of the Act was referred to the Standing Committee of the Parliament. While recommending the repeal of the Act, the Committee noted that the people belonging to the EWS/LIG categories should not be left at the mercy of the market forces for the supply of shelter for them and therefore, recommended that Central Government, after the repeal of the Act, must impress upon the State Governments the need to take necessary steps to protect the interests of the people belonging to EWS/LIG categories. While promulgating the above said Ordinance, the Cabinet in its decision directed
