

(b) if so, the measures proposed to claim their dues and rescue such other women stranded in Kuwait and other countries like Saudi Arabia etc.?

THE MINISTER OF LABOUR (DR. SATYANARAYAN JATIYA): (a) and (b) Repatriation/deportation of maids takes place from time to time. As and when the Indian housemaids working in Kuwait approach the Indian Mission with complaints of less or non-payment of wages or ill treatment, the Indian Missions intervene with the sponsors/employers. If no solution is found and the maids do not want to go back to the employers, they are provided shelter by the Mission. Repatriation of such maids is undertaken after the clearance of the local authorities has been obtained. If the sponsor is not willing to provide air tickets, arrangements for return air fare is made by the Indian Associations/Voluntary Organisations/Government of Kuwait. The arrangements for providing air tickets to 22 women housemaids in question were made by the Indian Women's League
