

The reason for actual industrial growth during 8th Plan falling marginally behind the target was mainly because of slowdown in investment and inadequate availability of infrastructure.

Sluggish Industrial Production

64. DR. MANMOHAN SINGH: Will the Minister of INDUSTRY be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the industrial production during the current fiscal year continues to remain sluggish;

(b) whether the packages announced by Government thus far have failed to stimulate industrial activity; and

(c) if so, what further steps are contemplated to accelerate the pace of industrial activity?

THE MINISTER OF INDUSTRY (SHRI SIKANDER BAKHT): (a) The industrial growth during the current financial year 1998-99 for the period April-September is 3.6% as compared to 6.0% during corresponding period of the previous year shows a slowdown in production.

(b) The slowdown in industrial growth can be attributed to both the domestic and external factors. Domestic factors include weak demand on account of inadequate investment in infrastructure sectors, like power, ports and transport, and slow down in general investment mainly due to capital market conditions and partly due to corporate restructuring in some industries in order to become internationally competitive. On the external side, the export growth has been negative which has been aggravated by fall in world exports.

The demand has been slackening for basic goods like steel, cement, commercial vehicles, capital goods as well as consumer durables. This has resulted in cut back of production by the industries and build-up of inventories.
