

(c) To resolve this matter, an inter-departmental committee was constituted by this Ministry. Based on the recommendations of the committee export of formulations of the said species by the exporters was allowed for a period of 90 days from 28.8.1997 to clear the existing stock of formulations. Further extension of time upto 31 March 98, by which time the revised Export-Import Policy will become effective, is also being considered. In addition, the Botanical Survey of India has been asked to carry out review of the status of the 53 plants, which have been put on the negative list of exports, in consultation with all concerned and make specific recommendations in the matter.
