RE: VILIFICATION PROPAGANDA
AGAINST FATHER OF THE NATION

SHRI PRANAB MUKHERJEE (West Bengal): Mr. Chairman, Sir, with your permission I would like to draw the attention of the House and, through you, the attention of the Government to an important matter which is agitating the minds of the members of this House and the minds of the people at large. On last Wednesday during Question Hour my colleagues, Mr. Vayalar Ravi and Mr. Hanumanthappa, drew the attention of the House to a news item and the Home Minister was good enough to respond and say that the Government would come out with detailed information. This is with regard to a drama titled "Me Nathuram Godsc Boltay" written in Marathi by one Pradcep Dalvi, which is staged in the theatres of Mumbai. Sir, in this country we have freedom of expression and that is guaranteed by the Constitution under Part III—Fundamental Rights. But surely there must be some limitation on the exercise of that freedom of expression. I would like to draw the attention of the House to one particular aspect. When the agitation was going on and various comments were published in different newspapers including The Indian Express, The Hindustan Times and The Hindu, a Press correspondent asked the producer of the drama that whether he was satisfied with the response which he was getting from the audience who watched the performance. His response was, I will feel satisfied that my Drama has been successful only when after watching the performance of the Drama, audience come out on streets and whenever they find a statue of Mahatama Gandhi, they deface that statue and also they rename every street which is named after Mahatama Gandhi because according to me Mahatama Gandhi was a non-violent Hitler of this country." Sir, this news item appeared in a newspaper Tarun Bharat
