

(c) to (e) Since sanction will mainly apply to new aid commitments, continuing programmes will mostly remain unaffected. However, in conformity with the current policy of the Government, various measures have been initiated to encourage other private capital flows including foreign direct investment and investment by NRIs/OCBs.

The Union Budget, 1998-99 emphasized the need to make India strong and self-reliant and proposed measures to strengthen the foundations of the Indian economy to deal effectively with an inherently uncertain external environment. These include strengthening of the rural, agricultural, and small scale sector; accelerated development of infrastructure sector; special attention to social sector; export revival, and reduced reliance on borrowed funds; ensuring macro-economic stability and control over inflation; raise the rate of domestic savings and supplement it with foreign investment; eliminating bureaucratic hurdles and enhancing productivity.
