

(c) what action has been taken by Government against those involved in the scandal?

THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI L.K. ADVANI): (a) to (c) A three member Committee of police officers found on random check that the maintenance contractor of traffic signals/blinkers had committed some irregularities; these included non-laying of cables and discrepancies in the length of the cables. Thereupon another Committee was constituted to check and physically verify each pending and future claim of the contractor, so that no over-payment is allowed. Delhi Police have informed that necessary deductions have been made before making payment to the contractor. Moreover, a show cause notice has also been issued to the contractor about the said irregularities.

Special Status to Orissa

1564. SHRI NARENDRA PRADHAN: Will the Minister of Home Affairs be pleased to state:

(a) whether any demand has been received to declare Orissa as a special category State; and

(b) if so, what action has been taken on it?

THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI L.K. ADVANI): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) The issue of declaring Orissa as a Special Category State is to be examined in the context of the Gadgil formula which is the basis for inter-state allocation of Central Plan Assistance. The Planning Commission, at present, is examining the suggestions/comments received from Chief Ministers regarding further revision of the said formula which was last revised in 1991 with the approval of the National Development Council.
