Nefarious Activities in Agra's Historical Monuments

4211. SHRI RAJNATH SINGH 'SURYA':
Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government's attention has been drawn to the news-item published in Amar-Ujala dated 9th March, 1997 captioned 'large scale ticket re-sale at Taj Mahal' and news-item captioned 'theft of Swarn Kaiash' worth crores of Rupees from Khas Mahal published in 'Aaj' dated 7th May, 1998 and news-item captioned "Theft of 'Swarn Kaiash'" from the tomb of sheikh Salim Chisti" published in Amar Ujala dated 6th July, 1997;

(b) if so, what is the reaction of Government in the matter; and

(c) the steps taken by Government to stop such nefarious activities in Agra's historical monuments of world fame?

THE MINISTER OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (DR. MURLI MANOHAR JOSHI): (a) Yes, Sir, except that no news-item as stated was published in the 7th May, 1998 edition of 'Aaj' from Agra.

(b) and (c) The officials responsible for issue and checking of tickets at the Taj Mahal are rotated and are also subject to surprise checks. A detachment of police is also posted at the entry and exit points at the monument for security checks.

At Salim Chishti's tomb at Fatehpur Sikri, from where the 'Kaiash' was stolen, the Archaeological survey of India has deployed watch and ward round the clock. Armed police quards have also sunilarly been deployed at this site by the State Government.
