Contract System A source of Corruption

4481. SHRI VAYALAR RAVI: Will the Minister of COMMUNICATIONS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that many work of Telecom like laying cables, telephone connections and repair are given on contract to private contractors;

(b) if so, the reasons for engaging such large number of contractors;

(c) whether Government are aware that these contract system has become a source of corruption; and

(d) if so, the steps taken to check malpractices?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMUNICATIONS (SHRI KABINDRA PURKAYASTHA):

(a) Yes Sir, Telecom Works like laying cables, installation of telephone lines and some repair work are given on contract to private contractors.

(b) The quantum of work to be done is more than what can be done through departmental manpower. These works are to be completed in a limited period and the not spread evenly throughout the year. Therefore private contractors have to be engaged for completing the work to meet the targets.

(c) and (d) Sometimes complaints about corruption are received. The contracts are awarded by calling open tenders by observing specified departmental guidelines. Proper supervision is kept on the Contractor's work, Vigilance Cells are functioning at various levels to keep a close watch on any kind of malpractice. When any, specific case of corruption is brought to the notice of the department, it is looked/investigated and further departmental action is taken.
