People below poverty line in Maharashtra

1819. MISS SAROJ KHAPARDE: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether the percentage of people living below poverty line in Maharashtra is quite high;

(b) if so, the steps taken by Government to raise the standard of living the people of the State;

(c) whether Government have prepared any special scheme for upliftment of poorest of the poor in Maharashtra; and

(d) if so, the details thereof and the budgetary allocation made for the purpose during 1997-98?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PLANNING AND PROGRAMME IMPLEMENTATION

(SHRIMATI RATNAMALA DEHARESHWAR SAVANOOR): (a)

As per the latest available estimates, the percentage of people living below poverty line in Maharashtra is 36.86% in 1993-94 as against the national average of 35.97%.

(b) A number of schemes are under implementation in the State of Maharashtra for raising the standard of people living below poverty line. These schemes include projects under Integrated Rural Development Programme (IRDP), Jawahar Rozgar Yojana (JRY), Employment Assurance Scheme (EAS), Drought Prone Area Programme (DPAP), Nehru Rozgar Yojana (NRY), Prime Minister's Integrated Urban Poverty Eradication Programme (PMIUEP) and Urban Basic Services Programme (UBSP) for the poor.

(c) and (d) The schemes for poverty eradication indicated in part (b) above, would be continued in the Ninth Five Year Plan. These schemes are likely to be rationalised and reoriented to make them more effective instruments of poverty alleviation. In order to improve the efficacy of the schemes, the emphasis would be on higher levels of investment per family, encouragement to activities under family credit plan and promotion of group projects. The details with regard to budgetary allocations for 1997-98 are being worked out.

Development of Vidarbha Region of Maharashtra

1820. MISS SAROJ KHAPARDE: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government are aware that the nine districts of Vidarbha region in Maharashtra are backward, both economically and educationally, leading to poverty, hunger and unrest amongst the population of the region;

(b) if so, whether Government have formulated any special scheme for overall development of the region;

(c) if so, the details thereof and if not, the reasons therefor; and

(d) the steps Government propose to take for overall development of the Vidarbha region?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PLANNING AND PROGRAMME IMPLEMENTATION (SHRIMATI RATNAMALA DEHARESHWAR SAVANOOR):

(a) The per capita income of Vidarbha Region in 1985-86 was estimated at Rs. 2318 which increased to Rs. 6177 in 1991-92, i.e. an increase of 166.48%. The increase during the same period in the per capita income of Maharashtra State was 160.63%. The literacy rate in Vidarbha Region in 1991 was 64.55% as against the literacy rate of 64.87% in Maharashtra.

(b) to (d) The Government is making efforts for ensuring a more balanced development of all the regions in the State. A time-bound programme for development of Vidarbha Region has been taken on hand. The programme include projects/schemes in various development sectors such as irrigation, roads, industries, agriculture, fisheries, dairy development, water supply urban development, health, technical education, backward classes and tribal development. In addition, new programmes for overall development of Vidarbha Region include allotment of plots in industrial areas at concessional rates, incentive schemes of seed capital to small scale and large and medium industrial units, decentralisation of mining areas, exemption from payment of stamp duty and registration fee on all documents except Article of Association and exemption from payment of electricity duty for all industrial units for a period of 7 years from 1.4.1997. In respect of Gadchiroli, this concession is for 10 years. An industrial complex of readymade garments at Amravati and some other agro-based industries are also to be set up in Vidarbha Region. Vidarbha Development Board has been set up with effect from 25th June, 1994.
