Delisting of Companies from Bombay Stock Exchange

1071. DR. Y. LAKSHMI PRASAD: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether hundreds of companies have been delisted from Bombay Stock Exchange for failing to pay listing fees;

(b) whether Government are aware that it is not only adversely affecting the interest of lakhs of shareholders in these companies, but will also affect the overall stock market; and

(c) steps proposed to ensure that such wholesale delisting does not take place?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI M.P. VEERENDRA KUMAR): (a) The Stock Exchange, Mumbai has informed that its Governing Board at its meeting held on 11th February, 1997 has decided to strike off the securities of 173 companies from the list of officially Quoted Securities with effect from 17th February, 1997 for failure to pay the annual listing fee.

(b) All listed companies are required to pay annual listing fee to the concerned Stock Exchange under the Listing Agreement. Stock Exchanges are empowered to delist the securities of a company in cases of default in payment of listing fee or any other breach of, or non-compliance with, any of the provisions of the Listing Agreement. Although delisting of securities of a company from a Stock Exchange may adversely affect its shareholders in particular and the stock market in general, it needs to be recognised that it is the duty of every listed company to pay the annual listing fee on a regular basis for protecting the interests of the shareholders.

(c) Securities and Exchange Board of India has informed that a Committee is being set up to examine various matters relating to delisting of securities of companies from the stock exchanges.
