Outstanding dues of State Governments against Railways

1602 SHRI SANJAY NIRUPAM: Will the Minister of RAILWAYS be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Railway Ministry owes an outstanding dues to the tune of Rs. 62,67,81,567 till October 1996, to the State of Maharashtra on deployment of State Police Force on Central Railway, South-Central Railway and South-Eastern Railway;

(b) if so, the period from which the dues have accumulated and the reasons for delay in payment by the Railways;

(c) the purpose for which the services of the State Police Force is required by Railways while RPF is already there;

(d) whether similar dues of other States are also pending, if so, the details thereof; and

(e) by when the arrears of the States, Particularly the State Government of Maharashtra, would be paid?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF RAILWAYS (SHRI SATPAL MAHARAJ): (a) and (b) the total outstanding dues payable to State of Maharashtra till October, 1996 on account of deployment of GRP on Central Railway, South-Central Railway and South-Eastern Railway is Rs. 1.74 Crore (approx). However, this amount does not include claims Rs. 22.57 crore (approx.) rejected by Central Railway due to unilateral creation of posts of GRP personnel by the State Govt, without the approval of Railway Administration. The outstanding dues of Rs. 1.74 crore are on account of current bills.

The reasons attributed to delay in payment are as under:—

(i) Non-submission of A.G's certificates by the State Govt.

(ii) Non-availability of funds.

(iii) Unilateral creation of posts of GRP personnel by the State Govt, without the approval of Railway Administration.

(c) There are two separate agencies responsible for the security on Railway's viz. (i) the Government Railway Police and (ii) the Railway Protection Force.

Policing is a State subject and hence maintenance of law and order and control of crime on Railway premises including running trains is the responsibility of the State Governments concerned, which they discharge through their Government Railway Police. The Ministry of Railways bear 50% of the expenditure on GRP, but have no control over the functioning of the GRP. However, the Railways on their part maintain close coordination with the GRP especially regarding crime control activities through frequent coordination meetings.

RPF is primarily entrusted with the security and protection of railway property including goods entrusted to the railway for carriage. Hence, RPF cannot replace the duties and functions performed by the State Police through the Govt. Railway Police.

(d) The details of outstanding dues payable to other States on this account is enclosed as Statement (see below)

(e) All clearly admissible bills will be cleared within the current financial year i.e. 1996-97 subject to the availability of funds.
