News Item Captioned "CBI Unearths Rs.
500 Cr. Scam in Gauge Conversion"

1549. SHRI SANJAY DALMIA: Will the Minister of RAILWAYS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government's attention has been drawn to the news item captioned "CBI unearths Rs. 500 cr. scam in gauge conversion" appearing in "The Economic Times", New Delhi, dated February 27, 1996; and

(b) if so, the facts of the matter reported therein?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF RAILWAYS (SHRI SATPAL MAHARAJ): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) The newspaper had reported:—

(i) Irregularities in award of gauge conversion works on South Central Railway;

(ii) Withholding of permission by MOS(R) for detailed investigation involving a Joint Secretary level officer and to hand over all other cases to CBI;

(iii) Loss suffered by Railway over entire Indian Railways on gauge conversion works would exceed Rs. 500 crores.

Further, this is to state that the investigation in tenders as well as execution of works has been made by the Ministry. Certain irregularities in award of contract were noticed by the Ministry and further cases were handed over to CBI. The matter regarding permission of registration of the case is being resolved in consultation with the Central Bureau of Investigation and the Central Vigilance Commission. There is no basis for loss of Rs. 500 crores and no major irregularity has been observed on Zonal Railway other than S.C. Railway.
