(b) if so, what was the main theme of the film festival, what criteria were adopted for selection of the films for the festival and the names of Indian films selected for the festival; and

(c) whether any awards were made for the participating films, if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRI P.M. SAY-EED): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) The details are given at Statement-I (See below).

(c) Yes, Sir. The details are given at Statement-II

Statement ITHEME OF THE FESTIVAL

The theme of the festival was VASUDHAIVA KUTUMBHAKAM i.e. the whole world is one family.

CRITERIA FOR SELECTING FILMS FOR INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL OF INDIA(A) FOREIGN FILMS:

Foreign films for the International Film Festival of India are selected in accordance with long-established guidelines, most of which are common to the international film festivals of the world. Broadly speaking, these are:

1. Films are selected keeping in view the overall aim of the Festival mentioned in the Festival Regulations every year, which is reproduced below:—

“The festival aims at providing a common platform for the cinematographies of the world to project the excellence of their film art; contributing to the understanding and appreciation of the film cultures of different nations in the context of their social and cultural ethos; and promoting friendship and co-operation among different peoples of the world.”

2. For the “Cinema of the World” Section, feature films of high quality which had been entered in, or had won awards at other International Film Festivals, or were of extraordinary merit, were accepted for exhibition.

3. All foreign films which were in languages other than English were required to have subtitles in English.

4. No. censorship was applied to films entered in the Festival.

5. For the Competition Section, films made by Asian Women Directors after 1.1.94 were screened.

6. In addition, the special packages of films for the Focus, Retrospectives, Tributes etc., were selected keeping in view the suggestions, if any, of the Organising Committee. Care was taken to concentrate on the cinema of a country from Asia, Africa or Latin America in the Focus Section of the Festival, in keeping with the practice of highlighting the cinema of Third World countries. Retrospectives and Tributes featuring major film makers of the world from different countries were arranged, alongwith some theme-based or anniversary-related packages of quality films.

(B) INDIAN FILMSI. SELECTION OF INDIAN PANORAMA FILMS:

The Indian Panorama films were selected by a jury of eminent film personalities and artistes nominated by the Government of India. Only films of cinematic, thematic and aesthetic excellence certified by the Central Board of Film Certifications (CBFC) between 1st September, 1994 and 31st August 1995 were included in the Indian panorama.

II. SELECTION OF FILMS FOR MAINSTREAM INDIAN CINEMA SECTION:

In this Section, the feature films were recommended by Film Federation of India.
