

(a) whether it is a fact that in South Avenue, North Avenue and other places of Central New Delhi, cable network operators are showing their films and other cable programmes on channels reserved for Doordarshan, thereby depriving the people to see the Doordarshan programmes due to their powerful system which makes, viewing the programmes of Doordarshan difficult and forcing them to subscribe to their network; and

(b) what stern measures Government are taking to stop this invasion on Doordarshan programmes?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRI P.M. SAYEED): (a) Government's attention has been drawn to some reports to this effect.

(b) The matter is under consideration.

Call Money Rate

171. SHRI ASHOK MITRA: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) the highest and the lowest quotations for the call money rate during the five fiscal years ending with 1994-95;

(b) the highest and the lowest quotations for this rate during the current fiscal year;

(c) the reasons for the inordinately high call money rate in recent months; and

(d) the measures undertaken by Government to discipline the rate?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (DR. DEBI PRASAD PAL): (a) The highest and lowest quotations for the call money rate during the past five years ending with

1994-95 (as per information available with RBI) are as follows:—

(per cent per annum)
Year	Highest	Lowest
1990-91	70.00	4.00
1991-92	85.00	1.00
1992-93	86.00	1.00
1993-94	17.00	0.25
1994-95	60.00	0.25

(b) In the current financial year upto November 23, 1995 the highest and the lowest quotations for the call money rate have been 85 per cent and 0.25 per cent respectively. Some stray rates might have been quoted at higher levels but actual transactions at these rates have been for very nominal amounts.

(c) The reasons included large borrowing by Central and State Governments, sluggish growth of bank deposits, intervention by the Reserve Bank in the spot foreign exchange market and mismatches between asset and liability maturities of banks.

(d) In order to bring down the call money rate Reserve Bank of India intervened in the Call money market and the Cash Reserve Ratio (CRR) was also reduced from 15 per cent to 14.5 per cent with effect from the fortnight beginning November 11, 1995.
