The reason for such variations is uneven development of economic and social potentials.

(c) State Governments implement programmes for improvement of health, literacy and maternal and child health. Central Plan supplements the States efforts through centrally sponsored schemes for control of epidemics spread of elementary education, health and nutrition of children and expectant and lactating mothers. Targets for these schemes take into account the variations in literacy, morbidity and infant mortality.

Land acquisition claims against Neyveli Lignite Corporation

1904. SHRI R. MARGABANDU: Will the Minister of COAL be pleased to state:

(a) the alarming tendency of land acquisition claims particularly against Neyveli Lignite Corporation;

(b) whether Government have got proposal to settle the claims by negotiations on the basis of recent High Court judgement; and

(c) whether action can be taken against officials for the misuse of N.I.C. funds by dragging the on court proceedings deliberately?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF COAL (SHRI AJIT KUMAR PANJA): (a) Out of 9000 acres of patta land acquired by the Neyveli Lignite Corporation so far since 1977, under the Tamilnadu Land Acquisition Act, claims relating to 2000 cases involving about 2,400 acres are pending for decision.

(b) In the course of a meeting held in April, 1995, the Hon'ble Chief Justice of the Madras High Court has advised that the litigation should be minimised through negotiations. This advice of the Madras High Court has been received by NLC and Government.

(c) As genuine grounds exist for disputing the claims, there is no question of taking any action against officials of the Neyveli Lignite Corporation.

Indian Domestic maids Going Abroad

1905. SHRI GOVINDRAO ADIK: Will the Minister of LABOUR be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government are aware of the over exploitation of Indian maids in South Asia, Middle East and Britain where it has been reported that their passports are taken and they are kept as slaves;

(b) whether it is also a fact the Indian Export Promotion Council is exporting 75,000 maids to Singapore, as Philippines had pulled out their entire work force of maids following the hanging of a Philippines maid; and
