

(b) how far these have been successful in reducing tax evasions; and

(c) magnitude of tax evasion during 1985-90 and 1991-95?

THE MINISTER OF FINANCE (SHRI P. CHIDAMBARAM): (a) Tax reforms is an on going process. A number of legislative measures have been taken in this regard during the ast five years. These include, in respect of Customs duty, reduction in the peak rate of Customs duty, reduction in the number of duty rates and elimination of large number of end use based exemptions; and, in respect of Income Tax, streamlining of deductions under the direct tax laws, introduction of simplified single-sheet return for non-business tax-payers having income upto Rs. 1,20,000/- and simplification of rules and procedures relating to tax deduction at source.

(b) Revenue receipts both under direct and indirect taxes have increased as a result of the tax reforms.

(c) No dependable study on the subject has been made in the recent years and it is not possible to indicate the magnitude of tax evasion.
