

(d) whether Government have accepted all the recommendation of the Aggarwal Committee;

(e) if so, whether Government propose to implement them; and

(f) if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRI CM. IBRAHIM): (a) and (b) The Expert Group constituted to review the provisions of Prasar Bharati Act, 1990, has submitted its report recently. Further action on the recommendations contained in the report, would be taken after consultations with representatives of political parties, media and employees' associations.

(c) Aggarwal Committee has suggested the creation of a "Management Pool" comprising officer from Programme, Engineering and News cadres.

(d) to (f) Government have accepted most of the recommendations made by the Committee and a decision has also been taken to implement the same. Only six out of the total ninety-eight recommendations, have not been accepted. Implementation of some of the recommendations would depend upon the requirements and availability of resources from time to time.

Transfer of Central Excise and Custom Inspectors

2899. DR. D. VENKATESHWAR RAO: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether the enmass transfer of 151 inspectors of Central Excise and Customs has paralysed the work in the Commissionerate, its range Offices and the Air Cargo Complex in Hyderabad;

(b) if so, what are the main reasons for the transfers;

(c) what are their demands; and

(d) what steps have been taken to restore the work which has greatly affected the State Government?

THE MINISTER OF FINANCE (SHRI P. CHIDAMBARAM): (a) to (d) The transfer of Inspectors issued in the common-cadre Commissionerates of Hyderabad, Guntur and Vuhakhapatnam, in April 1996 was an annual central transfer order; which included 17 inspectors who were transferred to Guntur/Vishakhapatnam Commissionerates. The main demand was for stay of transfer orders by the Inspectors of Hyderabad. The order has been reviewed and the general transfer order has been implemented barring a few inter-Commissionerate transfers from Hyderabad to Vishakhapatnam and Guntur Commissionerate. The transfer did not affect the work of the State Government and the revenue collection at all.
