Provisions regarding acceptance of Gifts in Banks

2880. SHRI O.P. KOHLI: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) the provisions regarding acceptance of gifts by the award Staff/Clerks in the Banks;

(b) whether award Staff/Clerks can be suspended for accepting a gift and if so, details thereof, Bank-wise and State-wise;

(c) whether award Staff/Clerks can be suspended on 'suspicion' of his alleged involvement in a bank fraud and kept under suspension without serving charge-sheet on him; and

(d) if so, within how much period of the suspension the charge-sheet required to be issued and if the same is not issued what safeguards are available to the employees?

THE MINISTER OF FINANCE (SHRI P. CHIDAMBARAM): (a) to (d) The public sector banks have reported that there are no provisions regarding acceptance of gifts by the award staff/ clerks in the Bipartite Settlements by which the service conditions of award staff/clerks are governed. However, giving or taking bribe or illegal gratification from a customer or an employee of the bank is termed as gross misconduct under clause 19.5 (K) of the Bipartite Settlement dated 19.10.1966.

Award Staff/Clerks can be suspended if there is a prima facie case of his alleged involvement in bank fraud, and on investigation if his continuing in suspension is not found warranted, the same can be revoked. Although no period is stipulated for issuing a chargesheet, it should be issued expeditiously without undue delay. There is no provision for automatic revocation of suspension. The suspended employee is, however, eligible for subsistence allowance under the rules and if the departmental enquiry by the bank is not completed within the period of one year of suspension, the employee gets pay and allowances unless the delay is due to the reasons attributable to the concerned suspended employees or his representatives.

Information received from 17 of the 27 public sector banks reveals that no award staff/ clerk has been suspended on the charge of acceptance of gifts.
