(b) if so, whether any decision has been taken in the matter keeping in view the ever deteriorating situation in the region?

THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI INDRAJIT GUPTA): (a and (b) The insurgency situation in the North East is under constant watch.

Out of the seven States in the North East, four States viz. Assam, Manipur, Nagaland and Tripura are seriously affected by insurgency at present.

Various measures have been taken to counter insurgency. Prominent insurgent groups have been declared as 'unlawful associations' under the Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act, 1967. The whole of Manipur, Nagaland and Assam States have been declared as 'disturbed areas under the Armed Forces (Special Powers) Act, 1958. Financial assistance is being extended to the State Governments by the Central Government for modernising their police forces. In the case of the North-Eastern States affected by insurgency, Special Central Assistance for security related matters is also being released.

Diplomatic initiatives with the neighbouring countries have been taken. Simultaneously, steps continue to be taken for economic development, particularly with a view to improving the basic infrastructure in the region.
