487. SHRI PARAG CHALIHA: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that appointments, extension, premature termination of deputation period of certain classes/categories of employees in the Central Government Ministries/Departments/Instrumentalities etc. are the essentially approved by the Cabinet sub-Committee on appointments;

(b) if so, the details of the classes/categories referred therein; and

(c) the methodology of regularising irregularities noticed in these provisions?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS (SHRI S.R. BALASUBRAMONIYAN): (a) to (c) The decision regarding appointment, continuation, extension and premature termination of tenure of officers on deputation in Ministries/Departments/Instrumentalities of Government of India, which are within the powers of the ACC are principally regulated by the guidelines of the Central Staffing Scheme laid down in DOPTs O.M.No. 36/77/94-EO(SM.I) dated 5.1.96. In respect of the Central Police Organisations, the guidelines for deputation of IPS officers are supplemented by the tenure rules for IPS officers laid down by the Ministry of Home Affairs. In respect of Central Government posts in the Ministry of Environment and Forests, earmarked for Indian Forest Service officers, the guidelines are set out in the Central Staffing Scheme notified by the Ministry of Environment & Forests under Resolution No. 12011/194-IFS. I, dated 26.2.96. In addition, for a variety of cadres in the Central Government, the provisions of the relevant recruitment rules and related guidelines, are applicable for regulating deputation postings.

Government may permit the premature termination of deputation on the following grounds:—

(i) To enable the officer concerned to avail of his promotion in his parent cadre.

(ii) On compassionate personal grounds.

Decisions in respect of irregularities noticed in implementing the above-mentioned provisions, are taken by the Appointments Committee of the Cabinet, based on the merits and circumstances of each case.
