

Abolition of panel on foreign investment

2144. SHRI SATISH AGARWAL: Will the Minister of INDUSTRY be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have decided to abolish the empowered panel on foreign investment as has been made out in the news-item appearing in the Times of India of the 27th June, 1996, under the caption "Government will abolish empowered panel on FDI"; and

(b) if so, the new guidelines in the matter?

THE MINISTER OF INDUSTRY (SHRI MURASOLI MARAN): (a) and (b) The Govt. have streamlined the system for according approvals to the proposals involving Foreign Direct Investment (FDI). Under the streamlined system, the recommendations of the Foreign Investment Promotion Board (FIPB) in respect of a project whose cost is Rs. 600 crores or less are submitted to the Industry Minister for decision. The projects whose costs are above Rs. 600 crores are submitted to the Cabinet Committee on Foreign Investment (CCFI) for consideration and decision. Consequent to this streamlining, the Empowered Committee on Foreign Investment (ECFI), which earlier considered FIPB's recommendations relating to the projects with an estimated cost of Rs. 300 crores or below has been abolished.

It is not possible to accurately estimate the likely quantum of exports and to identify the importing countries as the exports would depend upon the prices prevailing in the international and domestic markets on account of different varieties traded, variation in quality and other terms of trade. However, the Food Corporation of India has been permitted to export/sell for the purposes of export during 1996-97 upto 5 lakh tonnes of non-durum wheat from the public stocks against the carryover commitment made in 1995-96. Further, a ceiling of 10 lakh
