Employer's connivance in evasion of Income-Tax

3399. SHRI GHUFRAN AZAM: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

- . (a) whether Government are aware that several employers are undervaluing the salaries of their employees by separating their allowances, perquisite's etc.;
- (b) whether such an act by the employers is evading the Income tax to the tdne of crores of rupees; and
- (c) if so, what action Government propose to take in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI M. V. CHANDRASHEKARA MURTHY): (a) Yes, Sir. The Government is aware that some employers are not properly deducting tax at source in respect of some allowances and perquisites paid to their employees.

(b) and (c) It is not possible to quantify the extent of evasion in such cases since the employees may have paid proper taxes after including Such allowances and perquisites in their return of income. Cases of big employers are being vigoursly monitored to ensure that Proper tax is deducted at source. The Central Board of Direct Taxes has also issued circular's granting certain reliefs by way of exemption to the employers from penalty and prosecution proceeding if they made wood the short deduction of tax and paid it by 28th February, 1995.

For the purpose of clarifying the existing provisions regarding taxability of allowances, the Central Board of Direct Taxes has issued circular recently. The Finance Bill 1995 also proposes to specify in the Income Tax Rules the various exempt allowances.
