Housing Problem in Urban Areas

7527. SHRI O.P. KOHLI: Will the Minister of URBAN AFFAIRS AND EMPLOYMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government propose to formulate a plan to solve the housing problem in urban areas; if so, the details thereof;

(b) whether the DDA and Government have been taking plea of nonavailability of land and connected+elated infrastructure to cover up the failure to construct flats for the registrants; and

(c) if so, what steps government propose to take or have taken to allot the flats to all the remaining registrants by the end of 8th Plan?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF URBAN AFFAIRS AND EMPLOYMENT (SHRI P.K. THUNGON): (a) The National Housing Policy since endorsed by both Houses of Parliament lays down broad frame work of strategies to tackle the housing problem in urban and rural areas. The basic objective of the policy is to assit all people, and in particular the houseless, the inadequately housed and the vulnerable sections to secure for themselves affordable shelter through access to developed land, building materials, finance, and technology. All the State Governments have been requested to draw up * time bound Action Plans to implement the policy.

(b) and (c) Developed land at affordable prices is a critical input in any bousing programme. The policy lays down broad guidelines to State agencies to increase the supply of serviced land for various income groups and essential pub-Be purposes with a preponderant proportion for the poorer sections. The Policy also lays down steps towards removal of legal and other constraints with a view to promoting housing activity.

In so far as DDA is concerned it has reported that it had a backlog of 45057 registrants under MIGLIG housing schemes and allotted flats to 40409 registrants out of 80422 under SFSHIG category. DDA plans to provide flats to all the waiting registrants by the end of 8th Plan subject to availability of land and infrastructural facilities. DDA also plans to acquire more land in its new project areas, which will be used for housing for LIG/MIG categories.
