Victimisation of Police Officers

3248. SHRI S. S. AHLUWALIA : Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state :

(a) whether Government are aware that some Police Officers were victimised and subjected to discrimination by some State Governments for not allowing electoral malpractices in the recently held by-elections to the Lok Sabha and State Legislative Assemblies;

(b) if so, what are the details thereof; and

(c) what remedial action Government propose to take to save the honest public and other officers entrusted with election duties from victimisation by State Governments ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF LAW, JUSTICE AND COMPANY AFFAIRS (SHRI H. R. BHARDWAJ) : (a) to (c) The information is being collected and will be laid on the Table of the House.

Setting up of Family Courts

3249. SHRIMATI CHANDRIKA ABHINANDAN JAIN : Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state :

(a) the States/UTs where Family Courts are functioning ;

(b) the States/UTs where Family courts are not functioning; the reasons for not setting up these Courts; and

(c) the steps taken by the Government for early setting up of Family Courts in States/UTs where they do not exist at present?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF LAW, JUSTICE AND COMPANY AFFAIRS (SHRI H. R. BHARDWAJ) : (a) Assam, Karnataka, Kerala, Maharashtra, Orissa, Manipur, Rajasthan, Tamil Nadu, Uttar Pradesh and Pondicherry.

(b) Arunachal Pradesh, Jammu & Kashmir, Himachal Pradesh, Goa, Meghalaya, Mizoram, Nagaland, Daman & Diu, Dadra and Nagar Haveli, Chandigarh and Lakshadweep have expressed their inability to set up Family Courts for various reasons including Customary laws/institutions operating in their areas. Five States i.e. Punjab, Gujarat, Andhra Pradesh, Tripura and Madhya Pradesh have not yet taken any step to set up Family Courts. Haryana, Sikkim, West Bengal, National Capital Territory of Delhi and Andaman and Nicobar Islands have agreed to set up Family Courts.

(c) It is the policy of the Government to encourage the setting up the Family Courts. The States/Union Territories, where the jurisdiction of Family Courts Act, 1984 has so far not been extended, have been requested to take suitable step in this regards.

Free Legal Aid

3250. SHRIMATI CHANDRIKA ABHINANDAN JAIN : will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state :

(a) the amount earmarked for free legal aid to poor by Government during the last two years and its utilisation by States/UTs;

(b) the reasons for not utilising these funds by the States/UTs; and

(c) the steps taken/proposed to be taken by Government to make available free legal aid to poor effectively ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF LAW, JUSTICE AND COMPANY AFFAIRS (SHRI H. R. BHARDWAJ): (a) A budget grant of Rs. 40 lakh has been sanctioned under sub-head "Grant-in-aid" each during the financial years 1991-92 and 1992-93. The allocation of the Central Funds is not done on "State basis". The administrative and day-to-day working expenses of the State Legal Aid & Advice Board, etc., are being met out of the State Funds provided by the respective State Government. The Committee for Implementing Legal Aid Schemes sanctions grants-in-aid to State Legal Aid & Advice Boards, Universities and Law Colleges and non-political registered Social Action Groups involved in the field of Legal Aid on "Financial Year" basis for Implementation of Strategic Legal Aid Programmes, such as holding of Legal Aid Camps/Lok Adalats setting up of Legal Aid Clinics in Universities and Law Colleges; promotion of legal literacy and Training of Para-Legals etc. The grants released and the utilisation of the grant by States/UTs during 1991-92 and 1992-93 are as under:—

Financial year	Grants released	Utilisation certificate issued
1991-92	35,19,841	22,84,634.50
1992-93	32,57,636	2,79,137.50

Regarding utilisation of grants during 1992-93, it may be stated that the grantee Institutions were required to submit the audited accounts by 30th June, 1993. The accounts from the grantee Institutions are as such, expected to be received shortly. Furthermore, the legal aid programmes received a set back last year on account of widespread disturbances in different parts of the country.

(b) The reasons for non-utilisation of the funds by a State Government may differ depending upon law and order, floods/drought situation and attitude of the professionals, etc.

(c) Various Legal Aid Programmes, such as promotion of Legal Literacy, holding of Legal Aid Camps/Lok Adalats, and Training of Para-Legals, etc., are being organised to make available Free Legal Aid to Poor Person.
