These letters explain the land policy of Govt. towards sites held in bungalow areas, leases specified in Cantonment Land Administration Rules, 1937 and grant of leases to public institutions. The provisions of these letters apply to B-3 lands which comprise old grants, lease of various tenures under Cantonment Code 3899,1912 and CIA Rules 1925 and 1937 in respect of which occupancy rights are vested in the lessees. No lease involving conversion of old grants or other resumeble tenure into leaseholds is permissible

Premium is recovered at the time of granting of lease depending upon the nature of lease. Letter dated 9-2-1970 empowers the Deputy Directors, the Command to renew leases where the renewal option vests in the lessee. In all such cases premiums are recovered before the lease is executed. As such, there is no question of non-realisation of premium in lease of land.
