Preventive detentions made in India

4220. DR. SHRIKANT RAMCHANDRA JICHKAR: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) how many preventive detentions were made in India for reasons connected with External and Commonwealth Affairs during the last three years;

(b) what was the final fate of such detainees;

(c) what is the criterion on which such detentions are made; and

(d) whether such detentions have lately increased and if so, reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI RAJESH PILOT): (a) to (d) It seems that the Hon'ble Member is referring the preventive detentions made under the National Security Act, 1980. The Central Government or the State Government may detain any person with a view to preventing him/her from acting in any manner prejudicial to the defence of India, the relations of India with foreign powers and the security of India under the provisions of the Act. However, no specific information in detail is maintained about the preventive detentions made for reasons connected with External and Commonwealth Affairs by the Government.
