

Bids for the Oil Fields

6782. SHRI AHMED MOHMED-BHAI PATEL: Will the Minister of PETROLEUM AND NATURAL GAS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have received 54 bids from 13 companies for oil fields offered under the second round of bidding upto the first week of April, 1994;

(b) if so, what is the total number of companies both from India and foreign that have applied for bids;

(c) if so, whether Government have offered medium and small fields for development by private parties in October, 1993;

(d) what are the oil fields that will be provided to private and foreign companies;

(e) whether any final decision for providing oil fields to both foreign and Indian companies has been taken;

(f) if not, by when a final decision is likely to be taken; and

(g) to what extent oil production will be improved from these oil fields?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF PETROLEUM AND NATURAL GAS (CAPT. SATISH SHARMA): (a) to (g) 8 medium sized and 33 small sized fields were offered in October 1993 under the Second round of bidding for development by India and foreign companies.

54 bids have been received from 30 companies for development of fields in this round by the last date for submitting bids i.e. 31st March, 1994.

11 foreign and 29 Indian companies have submitted the bids.

The decision will be taken after negotiations with bidders.

The quantum of production of crude oil from these fields would depend on the reserves of hydrocarbons established in these fields.
