SHRI CHIMANBHAI MEHTA:
SHRIMATI RENUKA
CHOWDHURY:

Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state :

(a) whether it is a fact that People's Union of Democratic Rights have published the findings recently that out of 24 policemen involved in custodial rape cases on 12 women none has been convicted;

(b) whether the department's attention is drawn to the editorial of 'The Hindustan Times' dated 27th May, 1994 that dismissed and suspended policemen involved in the above rape cases are being reinstated;

(c) if so, the details thereof;

(d) whether it is a fact that retracting or withdrawal of statements by raped women against policemen were due to tremendous pressures including threat of ouster from their residential areas;

(e) what were the stratagems adopted to get withdrawal of statements of rape victims; and

(f) what are the shocking facts revealed by People's Union of Democratic Rights?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS: (SHRI P.M. SAYEED) (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) Yes, Sir. The Government has seen the news report.

(c) The policemen allegedly involved in the cases were dismissed from service or placed under suspension. However, some of them have been reinstated on account of their acquittal from the courts or under the directions from the Central Administrative Tribunal.

(d) No, Sir.

(e) Does not arise.

(f) The P.U.D.R. in its report has inter-alia made the following observations:—

i) The victims are intimidated into retracting from their complaints;

ii) The response of the official system ignores the victims vulnerability;

iii) The manner of conduct of trials put extra pressure on the victims;

iv) In a number of cases, judicial pronouncements are patriarchal in nature, and the character of the victim is made an excuse for acquitting the offender or reducing the sentence;

v) There is no organisational support from the Community to the victim.

vi) The victim suffers from stigma and ostracization and seeks anonymity and withdraws from the trial.

vii) In most of the cases, the victims are slum dwellers. The nexus between the policemen and local leaders provides the policemen with extra clout and also access to the victims.

(घ) और (ङ) दिल्ली में कुछ ऐसे रिहायशी क्षेत्र हैं जहाँ अवैध रूप से बंगलादेशी राष्ट्रिक ठहरे हुए हैं। किसी प्रामाणिक सूचना के अभाव में ठीक-ठीक संख्या बता पाना संभव नहीं है। राज्य सरकारों को ऐसे स्थाई निर्देश हैं कि अवैध बंगला-देशी राष्ट्रिकों का पता लगाया जाए और उन्हें स्वदेश वापस भेजा जाए। संबंधित एजेंसियों द्वारा पता लगाए गए एवं स्वदेश भेजे गए मामलों के आंकड़े प्रकट करना जनहित में नहीं है।
