THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF RURAL DEVELOP MENT (DEPARTMENT OF RURAL DEVELOPMENT) (SHRI UTTAMBHAI PATEL): (a) and (b) IRDP (Integrated Sural Development Programme)
JRY (Jawahar Rozgar Yojana) andare major employment generation programmes implemented by being the Central Government at present. IRDP is a softemployment programme for poverty alleviation with 'he objective to enable identified rural poor families to- cross the poverty line by providing them per -duetive assets and inputs in various sectors of economy through financial assistance by way of government subsidy and term credit from financial institutions. Under the programme, the target group consis s of small and marginal farmers, agricultural labourers, rural artisans, etc. The programme provides safeguards for the disadvantaged section of society like SC/STs, physically handicapped and women. The pattern of subsidy to the beneficiaries is -25 per cent for small farmers 33.3 per cent for, marginal farmers, agricultural labourers and rural arisans, and 50 per cent for SC|ST Physically handicapped persons The scheme is implemented through DRDAs (District Rural Development Agencies) at the district level and at the field level, block machinery is entrusted with the implementation of the programme. The funding patern for the programme- is 50:50 between the Central and the State.

JRY is another major poverty allevia - tion prfogamme of the Central Government, It is a wage employment programme implemented by the Government with the primary abjective of generation of additional gainful employent for the unemployed and under-employed persons in tile rural areas. Under the programme, preference is given to the members of SC/STs and 30 per cent of employment opportunities are earmarked for women in the rural 1 areas . The scheme is implemented at the district level through DRDAs/ zilla Parishads and at the village level through the Gram Panchayats. The overall expenditure on the implementation oF the programme is shared between the Centre and the State on 80:20 basis. For development of backward districts, this scheme has been intensified in 1993-94 in ISO backward districts in different States of the country were there is eonceatration of unemployed and under -emptoyed peeso.

Besides, Government of India has also implemented from October, 1993 another scheme called Employment Assurance Scheme" which aims to provide assured employment of 100 days of unskilled manual work to die rural poor who are in need of employment and seeking for it. This scheme is being imple-mented in 1978 blocks of 261 districts in 23 States and 4 Union Territories of the country. The target fixed and achievements mode under IRDP and TRY programmes during the last 3 years. Statewise are given in Anmexure (See Anpenrlix 171 annexure No. 13).

(c) For effective implementation of the employment generation programmes, these programmes are regularly monitored through—(i) periodical progress reports/returns; (ii) financial returns/audit repor s; (iii) intensive field inspections, and (iv) review by commit-tees/senior officers. Besides, the Central Governet his also introldused (Aest Officers" scheme which aims to monitor nmes with special reference to quality, timeliness and proper achievements of phy-
