

Legal aid to poor persons belonging to SC/ST

*156, SHRI MOHINDER SINGH KALYAN : Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state :

(a) what is the nature of legal aid provided to poor persons belonging to Scheduled Caste and Scheduled Tribe communities under the Legal Aid Programme;

(b) whether special attention is given to criminal cases, cases relating to immovable properties and labour disputes under the above programme;

(c) whether monetary assistance is also given to the above communities when they are faced with these cases; and

(d) the details of the budget allocations made for the purpose during the last three years ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF LAW, JUSTICE AND COMPANY AFFAIRS (SHRI H. R. BHARDWAJ) : (a) and (b) Ordinarily, Legal Aid is provided to every person whose annual income from all sources does not exceed Rs. 6,000/- upto High Court level and Rs. 12,000/- in regard to cases in the Supreme Court. However, this limitation as to income is not applicable to persons belonging to Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes. Those belonging to Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes are entitled to free legal aid right from the Munsiff's Court to the Supreme Court in all types of cases, civil, criminal as well as labour disputes. Free Legal Service includes expenses in regard to Advocates fees; court fees; drafting charges; preparation of paperbooks, affidavits; typing expenses and the like including summoning of witnesses etc.

(c) Since all expenses connected with litigation is paid out of legal aid funds, the question of granting any other monetary assistance does not arise.

(d) The Central Government provided the following budget for implementation of Legal Aid Programme during the last three financial years :—

1989-90 : 64.07 lakhs
1990-91 : Rs. 68.00 lakhs
1991-92 : Rs. 59.90 lakhs
