Income Tax Exemption to Blood Donation Programmes

213. DR. ABRAR AHMED :
SHRI SUDHIR RANJAN MAJUMDAR :

Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state :

fa) whether there is any proposal under Government's consideration to amend the Income-Tax Act to extend exemption to individuals and corporate bodies; who join the blood donation programmes; and

(b) if so, what are the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI RAMESHWAR THAKUR) : (a) Under section 11 of the Income-tax Act, 1961 exemption is available in respect of income to various institutions/trusts etc. carrying on charitable activities. Monetary donations to such trusts/institutions by individuals and corporate bodies are also exempt under section 80G of the Income-tax Act subject to certain conditions and ceilings. Since programme of blood donation can be considered as a charitable activity, any blood donation programme also qualifies for such income-tax exemptions. There is thus no necessity to amend the Income-tax Act in this regard. Donations in kind are, however, not exempt. Accordingly, there is no proposal for granting any exemption under the Income-tax Act in respect of voluntary service or donation of blood itself.

(b) In view of (a) above, the question does not arise.
