

Corporate Taxes paid by Financial Institutions

143. DR. SHRIKANT RAM-CHANDRA JICHKAR: SHRI V. RAJESHWAR RAO:

Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) what are the names of private sector financial institutions, including commercial banks in India;

(b) what is the amount of corporate taxes paid by each such institution during the last three years;

(c) whether cases have been instituted for non-payment of taxes; and

(d) what is the authority that monitors their activities after it is detected that they have not been paying their taxes regularly?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI RAMESHWAR. THAKUR): (a) The names of private sector commercial banks in India are given in the attached statement. (See below) The names of private sector financial institutions are not readily available. The Reserve Bank of India has been requested to collect this information and it will be laid on the Table of the House at the earliest.

(b) & (c) The information regarding taxes paid by private sector financial institutions including commercial banks and the details of penalty/prosecutions initiated against them for non-payment of taxes will have to be collected from the field formations of the Income-tax Department spread out all over the country. This will involve considerable time and effort which may not be commensurate with the objectives sought to be achieved.

(d) Whenever cases of tax evasion including those of private sector financial institutions and commercial banks come to notice, appropriate action by way of search, survey or other investigation is taken. However, if after assessment, any case of non-payment of taxes is detected, various recovery measures such as levy of interest, penalty, attachments, prosecution or other recovery proceedings are taken by the assessing officer.
