THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMERCE (SHRI SALMAN KHURSHEED) : (a) India's aggregate trade deficit during the financial year 1991-92 amounted to Rs. 3,835 crores or US $ 1,555 million, which was the lowest in a decade. However, the trade deficit amounted to Rs. 7,485 crores or US $ 2,622 million during the first six months of the current financial year, i.e., April-September, 1992. This is largely due to increase in imports during this period. The imports registered an increase of 51.4 per cent in Rupees terms and 22.3 per cent in dollar terms as compared to the corresponding period of the previous year. It may be worth mentioning that there was severe import compression during 1991-92 due to critical Balance of Payment situation.
