Refund of ticket money to passengers

3020. SHRI CHIMANBHAI MEHTA:
SHRIMATI MIRA DAS:
SHRI ANANTRAY DEV-
SHANKER DAVE:

Will the Minister of RAILWAYS be pleased to refer to the answer to Starred Question 211 given in the Rajya Sabha on the 22nd July, 1992 and state;

(a) the reasons for which the passengers are not eligible for compensation if undue and long delay—beyond two hours on long distance and one hour on short distance journeys occurs;

(b) whether such compensation is paid in other countries

(c) what are the reasons in normal situations for delay which are beyond the control of the Railways; and

(d) what are the schedules for the maintenance of equipments?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF RAILWAYS (SHRI MALLIK ARJUN): (a) In case of late arrival of trains, the Railways cannot grant refund or pay any compensation to all the passengers of such late-running trains in-as-much as Railways have already incurred the cost involved in the asportation of passengers. The tender fare structure is not fully cost-based and Railways do not earn profit from overall passenger services.

(b) This information is not available with the Ministry of Railways.

Reasons for late running of trains beyond Railways' control are agitations bandhs, miscreant activities, alarm chain pulling, bad weather, premature failure of equipments, cautious driving due to fog, etc.

(d) There are periodical schedules laid down for maintenance of various equipments, depending on technical requirements for each type of equipment. These schedules are generally time based and in some cases utilisation based.
