SHRI VENQD SHARMA:

Will the PRIME MINISTER pleased to state:

(a) whether Government are aware that many companies, including multinational companies, are selling their consumer goods by changing the selling retail price printed on the packet by stickers and indulging in profiteering;

(b) whether Government are also aware that a District Consumer Redressal Forum recently held such change in retail price by stickers as illegal under the Consumer Protection Act; and

These Rules also provide that a label can be fixed for providing revised information by the manufacturer/ packer only. However to ensure that these change have been made by the manufacturer/packer only it has been prescribed that the label should contain the name of the manufacturer/packer, his trademark or logo.

(b) No, Sir.

(c) To prevent fleecing of consumers the State enforcement authorities ensure that the retail price declaration is made by the manufacturer/packer himself and that the retail dealers are charging a price which is not exceeding the marked price
