

(d) if so, the culprit therefor; and

(e) the measures taken by Government to check the recurrence of such incidents?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI SRIPRAKASH JAISWAL): (a) and (b) Inputs and information regarding possible terrorist threats and designs, including possible infiltration from the sea route are/have been received from time to time. Such information/inputs are shared with all concerned agencies and State Governments on a regular basis. As regards the terrorist attack in Mumbai in November, 2008, there were also some inputs regarding the movement of a suspect ship in international waters which were shared with the agencies concerned. Action was taken by them by way of deploying vessels and aircrafts in the zone, but in the absence of any further specific inputs or information, it was concluded that no further action could be taken on the basis of available information.

(c) and (d) As information about terrorist attacks started coming in, the State police parties were immediately rushed to the affected places. Immediately on receipt of information that there were incidents of firing in several places, the Central Government authorities got in touch with the authorities of the Government of Maharashtra, and at their request, the local Army and Navy authorities were asked to provide assistance. On further request of the Government of Maharashtra, the Central government immediately alerted and mobilized the counter terrorist units of the NSG. A group of 200 men (which was reinforced the next day) was airlifted to Mumbai late that night and deployed at the various sites of the operation in the early hours of 27th November, 2008.

(e) Following the incident in Mumbai, the Government has taken a number of further measures to strengthen the internal security apparatus. These include: further strengthening and streamlining of the mechanism for gathering, analysis and sharing of intelligence, follow up thereon and coordination among different agencies and with the States; location/operationalization of a NSG team at the airport at Delhi to enable immediate movement in the event of an emergency and, towards this end, issue of notifications under the NSG Act, 1986 and Airports Act, 1934 empowering the Government/NSG to requisition civil aircraft in case of emergency requirement; a decision to set up regional hubs of NSG in Chennai, Hyderabad, Kolkata and Mumbai; and, sanction of additional posts in the NSG towards this end. Detailed reviews have also been undertaken in respect of the Coastal Security arrangements and various measures are under way for further strengthening these arrangements including registration of boats and issue of identity cards to fishermen and putting in place Vessel Tracking and Monitoring System, etc.
