New weapons procurement policy

1738. SHRIMATI T. RATNA BAI: Will the Minister of DEFENCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government is willing to implement new weapons procurement policy;

(b) if so, the details thereof;

(c) whether 54 per cent of procurement in the last fiscal from other countries shows that even after over 57 years of Independence, cutting edge technologies have not been developed in the country; and

(d) if so, the reaction of the Government thereto?

THE MINISTER OF DEFENCE (SHRI A.K. ANTONY): (a) to (d) Defence Procurement Procedure 2008 (DPP-2008) lays down the procedure for the acquisition of capital items for the Armed Forces. Procurement cases in which RFP is issued after 1st September, 2008 are to be processed as per DPP-2008. It includes the procedure relating to the formulation of Services' Qualitative Requirement, Acceptance of Necessity, Solicitation of techno-commercial offers. Evaluation of offers, Commercial negotiation and approval of Competent Financial Authority.

Import option is exercised only when it is necessary to procure an item within a definite time frame on operational grounds to bridge the capability gaps and when such equipment cannot be sourced indigenously. Government is taking all necessary steps to encourage and develop the indigenous capability to design and manufacture sophisticated defence items. Substantial achievements have been made by Defence Research and Development Organisation (DRDO) in many high technology areas such as Aeronautics, Missiles, Electronic Warfare, Advance Composites, etc.

R and D base for indigenous defence equipments

1739. SHRIMATI T. RATNA BAI: Will the Minister of DEFENCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government is laying stress on building a strong R and D base with accountability so that the development of defence equipment within the country is encouraged and dependence on foreign suppliers is minimized;

(b) if so, the details thereof;

(c) whether Government is considering extending applicability of the recently promulgated integrity pact for weapons suppliers of deals worth over Rs. 300 crore to deals of more than Rs. 100 crore;

(d) if so, the details thereof; and
