

mentioned about it. Thus the Central outlay for health and education has come down.

Specifically compared to Plan allocations of Rs. 287.50 crores towards elementary education in the 1991-92 Budget, the 1992-93 Budget provides only Rs. 284 crores. This does not even account for the inflation rate, either the current level of 12 per cent or the projected drop of 9 per cent. I demand that the Central Government should also take part in the promotion of elementary education. Thank you, Madam.
