

[Dr. Narreddy Thulasi Reddy]

work to a Swiss multinational company. Whereas, in paragraph 5, he has said that they have not, so far, even come to the stage of indicating their charges for the services offered. The Minister says: Thus, there is no decision or commitment to use their services'. This clearly shows that there is some idea to hand over the appraisal work to the Swiss multinational company.

The Minister has also said that the IMF and the World Bank have nothing to do with this. In the same paragraph, he says: 'The SGS staler! that they were prompted by the measures for industrial liberalisation introduced by the Government'. Who is responsible for industrial liberalisation? Everybody knows that it is the IMF and the World Bank who are responsible for industrial liberalisation measures of the Government. Therefore, indirectly, he has admitted that there is pressure, there is influence, by the IMF and the World Bank, on this issue.

Therefore, Sir, this Government is mortgaging our economic sovereignty to a foreign country. But without economic sovereignty, there is no question of political sovereignty. My suggestion is, if the Government has not taken any decision so far, please, for heaven's sake, for God's sake, don't take it. If the decision has already been taken, please withdraw the decision. For this, I want the Minister to give a categorical assurance in the House. Thank you.
