

AIKVTA regarding setting up of a new National Commission on School Teachers;

(b) if so, the details thereof; and

(c) the reaction of the Government thereto?

THE MINISTER OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRI ARJUN SINGH): (a) and (b) Yes, Sir. The AIKVTA has suggested for appointment of a new Commission on School Teachers. It has also been demanded that some representatives of teachers should be nominated as members of the Commission.

(c) Central Government has appointed two National Commissions on Teachers in February, 1983—one dealing with teachers at the school stage and the other for teachers at the higher education level (including Technical education). The reports of these Commissions were received in 1985. The Reports of these Commissions have duly been considered by Government. The matter relating to also considered in the context of Review Policy on Education, 1986, and follow-up action taken on the report of the Review Committee, working conditions of teachers was
