Change of Government accommodation

1120. SHRI RAM AWADHESH SINGH: Will the Minister of URBAN DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) what are the rules relating to change of Government accommodation by the Central Government employees;

(b) whether it is a fact that change can be sought in any three areas;

(c) whether it is also a fact that a change-seeker stands debarred for six months for all three areas if he does not accept the offer of change in respect of one area only;

(d) if so, what are the reasons for debarring in all the three areas; and

(e) whether Government propose to review this rule in view of the rule being disadvantageous to the Central Government employees; if so, the details in this regard and if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF URBAN DEVELOPMENT (SHRI DAULAT RAM SARAN):

(a) to (e) An officer to whom a residence has been allotted can apply for a change to another residence of the same type on the prescribed form indicating his preference for three different localities. After acceptance by the competent authority, the name of the applicant is included in the change Waiting list. The inter-seniority of the applicant so included is determined on "first come first served basis". Change is offered as and when the turn of the officer is covered on the change Waiting List. Due regard to the officer's preference is given as far as possible. If an officer fails to accept the change of residence offered to him within the stipulated period, he is not considered for a change of residence for a period of 6 months. This
