(Previously Unstarred Question 1991.

(Previously Unstarred Question 1991.

(a) whether the Federation of j Engineering Industries of India (FEII) have recently urged the Government of India for extension of certain concessions for small scale units;

(b) if so, the details thereof; and

(c) what is the reaction of the Government of India in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI RAMESHWAR THAKUR): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) The Federation of Engineering Industries of India (FEII) have urged the Government to consider raising the limit of excise duty exemption in respect of clearances made by small scale units from the existing level of Rs. 20 lakhs to Rs. 50 lakhs per annum. It has also suggested that the limit of concessional rate of duty in case of small scale units may be raised from Rs. 75 lakhs to Rs. 2 crores per annum. Further, the Federation has urged that the ceiling for entitlement of benefits under the small scale exemption scheme be raised from Rs. 2 crores to Rs. 5 crores per annum. According to the Federation, the concessions are necessary on account of the increase in investment limits for the small scale sector from Rs. 35 lakhs to Rs. 60 lakhs and also on account of the rising prices of various raw materials.

(c) Concessions in respect of central excise duties for the small scale sector are considered adequate.
