

Educational Bank to Finance Education
Expenditure for the poor

*236. SHRIMATI MIRA DAS:
SHRI CHIMANBHAI
MEHTA:

Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government propose to start an Educational Bank or make one scheduled bank as the model agency to advance loans to the poor and middle class students repayable on soft term basis;

(b) whether the central and state educational institutions propose to adopt only merit system, based on marksheets or entrance examinations for admission in schools and colleges; and

(c) whether Government propose to prohibit educational institutions from charging capitation fee in clandestine manner and penalise any violations?

THE MINISTER OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRI ARJUN SINGH): (a) No, Sir. However, Commercial Banks have been providing need based finance under the "Educational Loans" scheme.

(b) The government are of the view that admissions to institutions of higher and technical education should be made on certain objective criteria such as merit and reservation policy. The All India Council of Technical Education (AICTE) issued guidelines for admission to Engineering Colleges and Polytechnics, to State Governments/Union Territories for initiating steps to implement them with effect from the academic year 1991-92. The University Grants Commission (UGC) prescribed minimum standards for admission to the first degree course.

(c) The government have been urging the State governments to take steps to prevent charging of capitation fees. Some States like Andhra Pradesh, Bihar and Karnataka enacted legislation banning capitation fee.

The AICTE is vested with statutory powers to lay down guidelines, inter alia, in regard to fees charged by technical institutions. The guidelines are under consideration of AICTE. The Indian Medical Council (Amendment) Bill, 1987 proposes to abolish capitation fees as presently charged by private medical colleges and would enable the council to fix the ceiling of tuition fees and other charges. The Bill was referred to a Joint Committee of Parliament which gave its report in July, 1989. The Bill is pending in Rajya Sabha for consideration.

Confiscated Foreign Currency in the custody of Enforcement Directorate

*237. DR. BAPU KALDATE: Will the Minister of "FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) what is the practice for keeping in custody the confiscated foreign currency by the Enforcement Directorate;

(b) what is the total amount as per the latest figures available of the confiscated foreign currency in the custody of the Enforcement Directorate;

(c) whether considering the question of meeting the foreign exchange crisis Government propose to bring about a change in the existing practice and to deposit the foreign currency in the Reserve Bank of India or public sector banks after the completion of the adjudication process regarding the seized currency, and

(d) if so, by when a final decision in this regard is likely to be taken?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI RAMESHWAR THAKUR): (a) The seized currencies are kept in safe custody either in the safes