MESSAGE FROM THE LOK SABHA

Constitution (Scheduled Castes) Orders (Amendment) Bill, 1990

SECRETARY-GENERAL: Madam, I have to report to the House the following message received from the Lok Sabha signed by the Secretary-General of the Lok Sabha :

"In accordance with the provisions of rule 120 of the Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business in Lok Sabha, I am directed to inform you that Lok Sabha, at its sitting held on the 29th May, 1990, agreed without any amendment to the Constitution (Scheduled Castes) Orders (Amendment) Bill, 1990 which was passed by Rajya Sabha at its sitting held on the 8th May, 1990."

TRADE UNIONS AND THE IN-DUSTRIAL DISPUTES (AMENDMENT)
BILL, 1988

श्रम एवं कल्याण मंत्री (श्री राम विलास पासवान) : उपसभापति महोदय, मैं प्रस्ताव करता हूँ कि—

“व्यवसाय संघ और औद्योगिक विवाद (संशोधन) विधेयक, 1988 को वापस लेने की अनुमति दी जाए।”

The question was proposed.

PROF. CHANDRESH P. THAKUR (Bihar) : Madam, I saw the Chairman End sought his permission that at the time of withdrawal of this Bill by the Labour Minister, I would like to make some observations.

So far as the details of the Bill are concerned, I have nothing to say, but the history of industrial relations legislation has been a series of abortive attempts in this country. There is a vested interest at the moment. In terms of interest, a lot of people have a lot of ways of looking at it. There are serious problems with regard to working of industrial relations framework and some major amendments are due. Several attempts have been made, but one or the other, vested interest have been able to torpedo it. This is one more occasion when I would have thought that the hon. Labour Minister in his good judgement should have reviewed all these issues. He has consulted the Indian Labour Conference, he has been in touch with several agencies and another Bill—“The Participation of Workers in Management Bill, 1990—is being brought. But why was not a comprehensive Bill in terms of an amendment Bill was brought before this House so that we are able to look into the problems of industrial relations in this country which will bring a tremendous change which is overdue ?.. (Interruptions) . .

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN:
Let him make his suggestion.

PROF. CHANDRESH P. THAKUR:
The status of trade unions, the question of recognition of the trade unions and the question with regard to the industrial relations frame
